I AM GOING TO BE PERSISTENT AND CONSISTENT, BECAUSE

- this is a simple business, where duplication is easy and there are no hidden requirements
- my business grows if I help others, and I also get 60% basic payback
- I can choose my business partners, and I can be my own boss at my own company
- I don't need any starting capital, but I will get passive income for 12 levels
- Flavon is in constant growth throughout Europe
- my income depends on my achievement and home-shopping is becoming more and more widespread in the world
- working from home involves very low costs
- the product is easy to consume, can be bought at a reasonable price, works excellently and it is tasty
- nobody is excluded from this business; anyone can work with it if they really want
- I have a complete control over my income, both my business and my income can be planned in advance
- this is my direct and natural way towards financial freedom
- nutrition and health market is the market with the highest potential
- I am holding both my personal and financial future in my hands
- both the company and my sponsor line provide me with efficient support and training system
- my upline sponsors provide me with free advice; they teach and mentor me
- I can have passive income on a long term, and my achievement is also rewarded with recognition
- the consumption of flavonoids is more and more popular all around the world
- with the help of this business I can provide health and financial well-being for my family and my acquaintances

If you follow these steps, learn them and learn to pass them on, you will surely be successful.

LET'S SUM UP AND REVISE THE MOST IMPORTANT STEPS.

1. Start-up consultation with your sponsor, with the help of this sheet
2. Set short term and medium term goals
3. Compile a list of names and manage it
4. Invitations (make appointments for 1/1 or 2/1 discussions, or to presentations)
5. Hold discussions and product or business presentations
6. Close the meeting, pay regular visits, care for your customers and help your new colleagues start on their way
7. Become a key person:
  - Consume the products regularly and continuously
  - Regular work week by week + monthly activity
  - Continuous self-training, going to events
  - Consultation and sponsoring + purposeful and positive attitude

The main idea of Flavon business is that you can multiply your own results by following the path well trodden by successful people, thus your work can be followed and repeated. If you become a leader, you will serve as an example for your group. Set an example in work, self-training and attitude. Actions speak louder than words. You can achieve anything in life if you properly help others achieve their aims!
